Personal Platform
Role: Blog Writing

I used to write funny blogs on movie reviews, daily life struggles, and various other topics to explore my creative spark in writing. These blogs were well-received and loved by readers, showcasing my ability to engage and entertain through humor and creativity.

BABY AUNTY (DIGITAL MAGZINE)

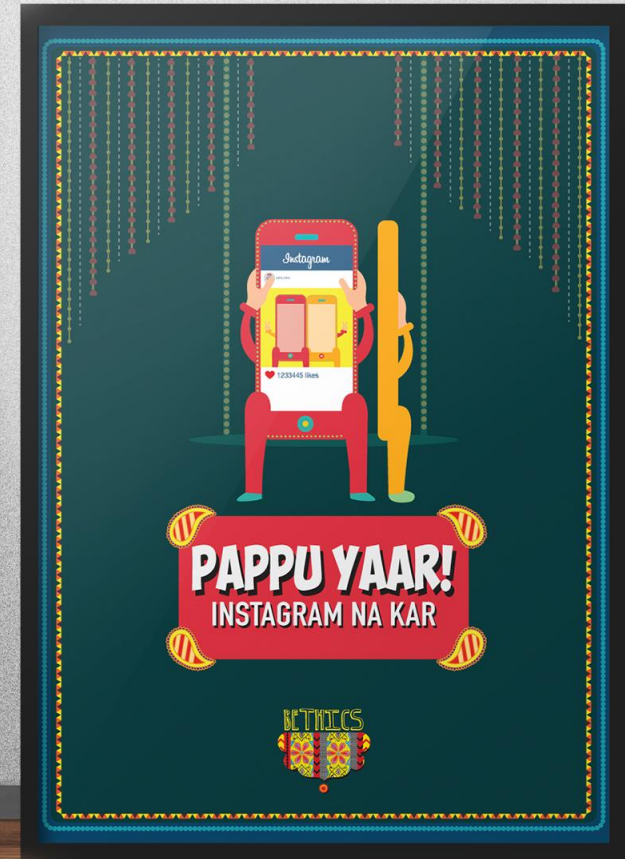

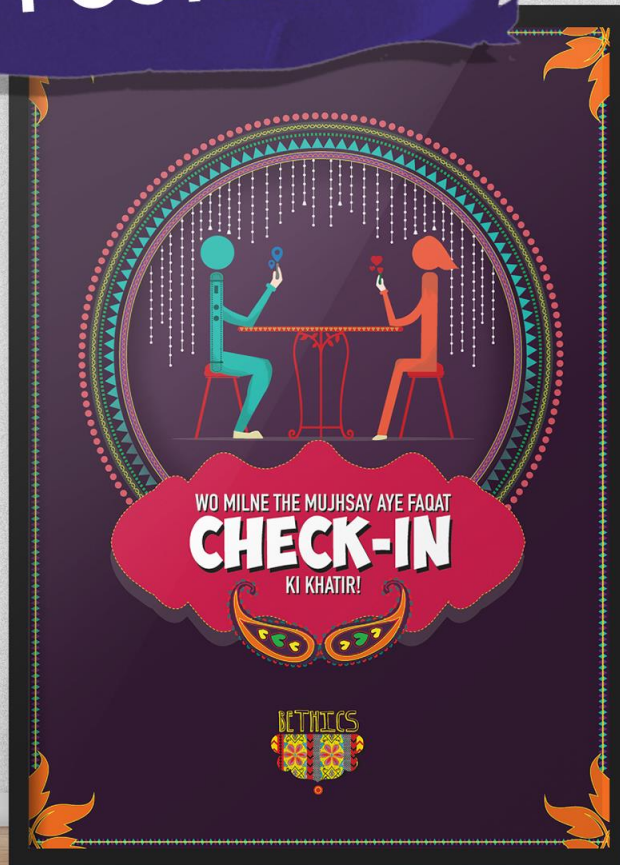

Personal Platform

Role: Creative Writing |
Designing & Content

INSTA @BABYAUNTY

I created a digital PR account on Instagram for a brief time, covering the latest news, social trends, and memes with a fun twist. The concept was based on the idea of "Baby Aunty," a sharp-minded, wicked, and spying relative common in every Pakistani family. This unique approach allowed me to engage audiences with humor and relatability, making the content both entertaining and relevant

FUN POSTERS

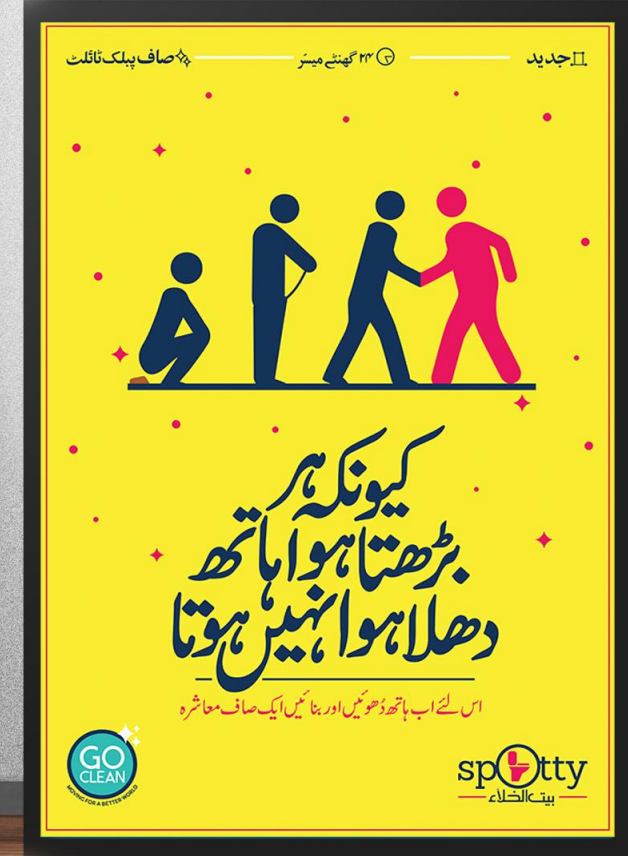

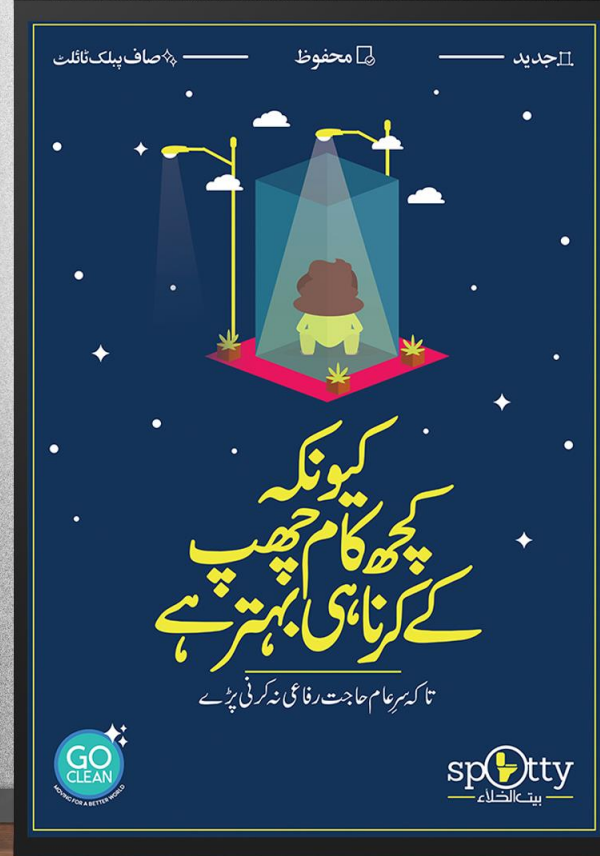

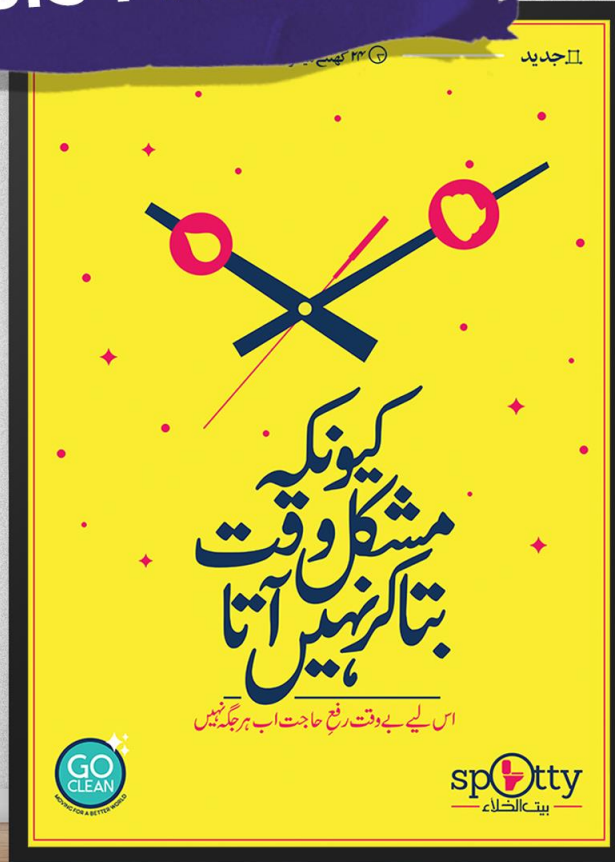

Personal Platform

Role: Creative Writing and Visual Design

I created fun posters aimed at encouraging behavior change regarding the ethics of sitting together and not indulging in phones. These posters used humor and engaging visuals to promote healthier social interactions and mindful behavior

In Pakistan, cleanliness is a significant aspect of our faith, yet public sanitation is lacking. Peeing on walls is common and causes various health issues. My thesis proposes a solution: public toilets for men and women across Karachi. This project aims to encourage the use of these facilities, promoting a healthier and more civilized society.
